D&C 121:1-3

Answers amid trial

Those who have not been inclosed in the walls of a prison without cause or provocation can have but a little idea how [sweet] the voice of a friend is (1) one token of friendship from any source whatever that awakens and calls into action every sympathetic feeling...

until finally all enmity malice and hatred and past differences misunderstandings and mismanagements be slain victims (2) at the feet of hope and when (3) the heart is sufficiently contrite

then the (4) voice of inspiration steals along and whispers

Then D&C 121:7-9

A photograph of a forest with sunlight streaming through the trees, creating a warm, golden glow. The sunbeams are visible, and the overall atmosphere is serene and bright. The text is overlaid on the top and bottom of the image.
