2nd Feb Thurs [1893] Cold and chilly. Attended Fast Meeting.... Br John Alger said while speaking of the Prophet Joseph, that when he, John, was a small boy he heard the Prophet Joseph relate his vision of seeing The Father and the Son,

That God touched his eyes with his finger and said "Joseph this is my beloved Son hear him." As soon as the Lord had touched his eyes with his finger he immediately saw the Savior. After meeting, a few of us questioned him about the matter and he told us at the bottom of the meeting house steps that he was in the House of Father Smith in Kirtland when Joseph made this declaration, and that Joseph while speaking of it put his finger to his right eye, suiting the action with the words so as to illustrate and at the same time impress the occurrence on the minds of those unto whom He was speaking. We enjoyed the conversation very much, as it was something that we had never seen in church history or heard of before.

Joseph Smith:

Peter penned the most sublime language of any of the apostles.

A lively hope by the resurrection

Your faith once tried being much more precious than gold...

Gird up the loins of your mind

Your old lusts of ignorance

All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass

Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood

Using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness

Returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls

The hidden man of the heart

Be not afraid of every shadow

Charity preventeth a multitude of sins (JST)

...your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour

Greet one another with the kiss of charity

A dense forest with sunlight filtering through the trees. The scene is filled with tall, thin trees and lush green foliage. A bright sunburst is visible in the center, creating a warm, golden glow that illuminates the surrounding leaves and branches. The overall atmosphere is serene and peaceful.

A thought...

...that your faith, once tried, being much more precious than gold...

Notice it is not God's faith in us that is being tried and refined. It is OUR faith in ourselves—our trust in our own willingness to follow him regardless of the sacrifice.

When we truly understand that then shall our confidence wax strong, having been refined in the furnace of our afflictions. And there is nothing more precious...
